

Holiday Elf Assists Cellist at Senior Dinner

Each December, our own holiday elf, Irene Koch, dons her elf hat to assist her daughter, Laura King, as she entertains our seniors at the annual holiday get-together. Leading the seniors in singing some of the old and faithful songs of the season, Laura flashes her bow across the cello strings, sending currents of music to ears of those present. Three of our seniors carried home their prize for being able to jot down the names of all of Santa's reindeers – deer poop! Yummy!

A meal of pork roast, potatoes, beans, and a delightful cupcake rounded out the occasion as seniors filled their tummies with good food. Elf servers were Carol Frazier, Judy Jennings, Charlotte McLain and Carole Fresca.

Thus ends another year for our seniors! It has been a good one. All you seniors out there who are not taking advantage of what the Sleeping Giant Seniors has to offer, please plan to join us in January for a game day (Jan. 11, 12:30 p.m., Community Center), a movie afternoon (Jan. 20, 12:30 p.m., Community Center) and our regular monthly meeting, January 28, 1 p.m. at the Community Center.
